

Ball State Majors Classified by Dominant Occupational Theme

Prepared by

Jack Ihle

Ball State University Counseling and Psychological Services Center

Realistic

Graphic Arts Management

Industry and Technology

Manufacturing Engineering Technology

Natural Resources and Environmental Management

Pre-Engineering Technology Education

Vocational, Trade, Industrial, and Technical Laboratory

Investigative

Actuarial Science

Anthropology

Biology

Chemistry

Computer Science

Economics (Liberal Arts)

Environmental Design

Geography

Geology

Industrial Technology

International Business

Mathematical Sciences

Medical Technology

Music Engineering Technology

Physics

Pre-Dental

Pre-Medical

Sociology

Urban Planning and Development

Artistic

Architecture
Art
Classical Culture
Classical Languages
Dance Performance
English
Environmental Design/ Urban Planning
Journalism
Landscape Architecture
Modern Languages
Music
School Media Services
Speech Communication
Theatre

Social

Athletic Training
Criminal Justice and Criminology
Dietetics
Early Childhood Education
Elementary Education
Exercise Science and Wellness
Family and Consumer Sciences
Health and Safety
Health Science
History
Junior High/Middle School Education
Kindergarten-Primary Education
Latin American Studies
Legal Administration
Nursing
Philosophy
Physical Education
Political Science
Pre-Law
Psychological Science
Religious Studies
Secondary Education
Social Work
Special Education
Speech Pathology and Audiology
Teaching

Vocational, Family, and Consumer Sciences

Enterprising

Business Administration

Economics (Business)

Finance

Insurance

Management

Marketing

Mathematical Economics

Telecommunications

Conventional

Accounting

Business Education

Marketing Education

Office Systems Administration

Holland's personality life-style designations are used with permission.